

Dallas Children's Advocacy Center

ABOUT AIM FOR ADVOCACY

Hosted at the beautiful Dallas Gun Club, Aim for Advocacy raises over $300,000 each year to support Dallas Children's Advocacy Center. The event engages sporting and outdoor enthusiasts in DCAC's mission to provide hope and healing for the most severely abused children in Dallas County. Along with competing in a friendly and challenging 8-station clay-shooting tournament just in time for dove season, sponsors and their guests will also enjoy a catered lunch and exclusive access to a live auction of once-in-a-lifetime experience packages for fishers and hunters.

ABOUT DALLAS CHILDREN'S ADVOCACY CENTER

MISSION	The mission of Dallas Children's Advocacy Center is to improve the lives of abused children in Dallas County and to provide national leadership on child abuse issues.
PROGRAMS	Through multidisciplinary coordination, forensic services, family advocacy, therapy, and community education, DCAC coordinates the investigation and prosecution of the most severe cases of child abuse in Dallas County and provides healing to families affected by abuse. For more information, please visit https://dcac.org/what-we-do/ .
CLIENTS	Last year, DCAC served over 8,000 children (and their non-offending family members) who were sexually abused, severely physically abused or who had witnessed a violent crime. Our average client is a 9-year-old girl who has been sexually abused by someone she knows and trusts.

Dallas Children's Advocacy Center is a nonprofit corporation;
it is tax-exempt under Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3).
